DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on 16 February 2007 has been entered.

Applicant amended claims 20-26. Claims 20-26, 7 claims, are allowed.

Examiner's Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of reference, Burge (US 6014638), does not disclose the claimed limitations, such as:

a client computing device having a storage device coupled to the processor of the client computing device and storing browser software adapted to control the processor to download and display information from the plurality of preference information including a ranking of preferred ones of the plurality of network sites, and instructions adapted to be executed by the processor to, inter alia, update the ranking of the preferred ones of the plurality of network sites.

The closest non-US prior art of record is Kakine et al., Japanese publication JP 10240605A, published on 11 September 1999. Kakine discloses automatically updating display by means of a browser at the time of updating a data base and to prevent wasteful communication by permitting an HTML screen generation means to generate an HTML(hyper text markup language) screen wherever the change of data is detected and transmitting the update of the screen to the browser. Kanine does not disclose the combination of client-side monitoring and update of preferences on a client device:

including a ranking of preferred ones of the plurality of network sites, and instructions adapted to be executed by the processor to update the ranking of the preferred ones of the plurality of network sites.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
